

Kodner Galleries To Put Trove Of Porcelain Plaques Across The Block

French bronze and onyx gueridon mounted with Sèvres porcelains of Louis XV and his court.

DANIA, FLA. — Following two years of negotiations, Kodner Galleries recently acquired what the firm said may possibly be the largest collection of Nineteenth/Twentieth Century Continental painted porcelain plaques in private hands.

The lifetime collection from central Florida, which will be auctioned December 10, includes examples of KPM, Royal Vienna, Sèvres and others. The highlights of the collection are numerous and include a monumental Royal Vienna charger depicting Christopher Columbus; a monumental circa 1870 KPM painted porcelain plaque, “Saint Jerome in Prayer”; a large Nineteenth/Twentieth Century KPM plaque of “Hagar and Ishmael Banished from the House of Abraham”; a late Nineteenth Century German carved and giltwood cabinet mounted with Vienna enamels and Meissen porcelain; numerous plaques signed J. Wagner and a French gilt bronze and onyx gueridon mounted with Sèvres portrait plaques of Louis XV and the ladies of his court.

Nineteenth Century German gilt-wood cabinet mounted with Vienna enamels and Meissen porcelain.

In excess of 150 plaques and plates will be offered.

The collection also includes many qual-

Monumental circa 1870 KPM painted porcelain plaque “Saint Jerome in Prayer.”

ity examples of Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Continental paintings.

Kodner Galleries is at 45 South Federal Highway. For information, www.kodner.com or 954-925-2550.